Editorial

Dear Reader,

I have now been to 2 yoga classes with Amber on a Tuesday evening. She is really good, calm, and lets everyone go at their own pace. She has been teaching for over 20 years. She says there is no need to be flexible and all ages are welcome. I really enjoy the classes and can really recommend them, regardless of how flexible you are. :)

As you can see we have now moved to a smaller version of the magazine. This due to the reduced number of adverts that pay for the printing.

Angela, Andreas, Darren, and Lesley

The magazine is available for download from the Ingham Village website:
www.inghamvillage.co.uk.

If you wish to send an article to the magazine for publication, the cut off date is 20th of the month. Please send it to: magazine@inghamvillage.co.uk

INGHAM VILLAGE HALL - Registered Charity No 303988

The Beetle Drive was a lot of fun, a lot of laughs, and a good night was had by all who came.

Our ever popular Astronomy Evening on 15th Nov will be another chance to learn more about the night sky. If the weather is good to us, telescopes will be set up in the playing field to have a closer look.

Date for your diary: Art & Craft Bazaar Saturday 6th December from 11 to 4. This is a new idea for the Village Hall. Instead of the usual jumble sale we are introducing a new level of Crafts to our event. Refreshments available with mince pies and mulled wine (non alcoholic)

Catfield Village Hall

An evening of Norfolk entertainment hosted by The Occasional Ceilidh Band

Friday 7th November
Starting at 7pm

Sea Palling Independent Lifeboat

As autumn rolls in, our volunteers have been hard at work, maintaining the station and equipment after a demanding year. This upkeep is essential to keeping everything shipshape. Training continues apace, with new crew building skills and experienced members advancing in rough-weather handling, crew duties, and first aid - crucial for our role as first responders.

We're excited to host a tombola stall at the North Walsham Lights Switch-On on Friday 29 November, 2.30–7pm (lights at 6pm). It's a great chance to meet the crew and enjoy some festive cheer. Santa will also be visiting Sea Palling in December - details to follow in our next newsletter and online. These events help fund our vital lifeboat service, so we hope to see you there!
