Editorial

Dear Reader,

Happy New Year, and we are still here! That has to be the best start to the New Year for me. After many conversations, the magazine has been saved. I am so pleased. I am sure you are too.

Andreas and I went to the lovely Carols by Candlelight at Holy Trinity, it was a really lovely event, singing carols and eating mince pies. Andreas doesn't like mince pies, but he thought the punch was great. I really enjoyed chatting with so many people afterwards. A lot of you were so concerned that the magazine was ending, and there were lots of offers of help to keep it going. It really was touching. It also showed me how much this village misses having a centre point to it. I am hoping that between the church and the village hall we can create that thriving sense of community.

I will continue to put the magazine together for the next couple of months then that task will be taken up by someone else. I understand that there are others who are now interested in taking an active part in creating and managing the magazine. Please write to me at magazine@inghamvillage.co.uk and we can discuss how things can work in the future.

Angela, Andreas, Darren, and Lesley

The magazine is available for download from the Ingham Village website: www.inghamvillage.co.uk.

If you wish to send an article to the magazine for publication, the cut off date is 20th of the month. Please send it to: magazine@inghamvillage.co.uk

INGHAM VILLAGE HALL - Registered Charity No 303988

Our new format Xmas Art & Craft Bazaar was a good success, well attended and enjoyed, especially those lovely cakes! £348.76 towards funds was raised, well done all.

We are pleased to report that the Geoffrey Watling Charity in Norwich have awarded us a £3000 grant towards the cost of our new heating system which has been installed and is keeping our users warm.

A call out to you all - Whether you use your Village Hall or never attended, we wonder whether any kind people out there would be willing to kindly donate to help with the upkeep of the Hall? Any amount would make a difference. If you would rather donate time, we'd love to have you onboard as a helper or even as a committee member. Don't forget, the Hall can be booked for many different events; if you are looking for a venue for parties, meetings, etc. It is a great space and has a fantastic field which can be used for sports and games.

Happy New Year!

Christmas provided a well-earned pause from our routine training schedule, but our volunteers continued to demonstrate exceptional commitment to First Aid and Casualty Care. Over two intensive weekends, the crew completed the Qualsafe Level 3 Award—an excellent team-building experience and a valuable qualification that strengthens our operational capability.

The upkeep of our equipment and station remains a priority, particularly during the harsher winter weather. Throughout the Christmas period, volunteers dedicated their time to ensure that both the station and all equipment remained fully prepared for the next call for assistance.

With best wishes for the New Year from all the crew at Sea Palling Independent Lifeboat.
